The lowa House of Representatives have passed a bill, by sasimous vote, to close the concerns of the Miners' Bank. e bill repeals all banking powers under the charter, and is the affairs into the hands of two Trustees, to be apmed by the Judge of the Sd Judicial District, who are to ceed forthwith to settle up the affairs of the institution. The canal bill passed to its third reading in the Illinois base on the 3d inst , by a vote of 63 to 38. It was amendin several particulars by the committee to whom it was committed, but not, says the correspondent of the St.

ests Republican, sufficient to protect the State against the injustice on the part of the trustees to whom the "sole of this vast and valuable property is to be committed, they see fit so to act. No definite action has as yet been had on the bill to wind the Shawneetown Bank. In the course of the debate on embject, some of the leaders of the self-styled Democrattany assumed the doctrine that there was no such thing rights, and that one Legislature had the right to heel any act, either public or private, passed by a preone. A new bill to provide for the dissolution of the Casection of the State with the Bank was introduced on 2d by Mr. Ficklin. It provides that the Governor shall, mediately after the passage of the act, open a negotiation The sale of the Bank Stock swned by the State to said hak, upon the following terms: He is to sell the stock, to amount of $1,000,000, at par, and receive therefor our the indebtedness for a similar amount, without interest. the the dissolution is consummated, the Bank is to issue bond, bill, note or other evidence of indebtedness by hich the State shall in any wise be bound by a stockboldbat all issues hereafter to be made are to be solely and spreniy upon the faith, credit and responsibility of the

Markets-Carefully reported for The Tribune. FRIDAY, P. M.

ISHES. The market remains without change, buyers defering but 5 25 a 5 314 for Pots, and helders asking 5 $13.50. Pearls are entirely nominal at 6 50. We notice tate of 75 bbls Pois, 1842, at 5 124 for export.

601TON—We cannot perceive that the foreign advices at had any effect upon the market. The sairs to-day are and, my 500 bales, at previous prices. For fair and above it, which continue in limited supply, the market is farm: billelow fair lots are pressing on the market, and holders the star form. The stock on sale is estimated at about also bales. We quote fair Upland 6 a 7; fair N Orleans to Alabama 7 a 74. At Augusta the advance gained by report was fully sustained; sales at 44 a 64.

PLOUR AND MEAL—The reduced amount of the stock Western Figur has induced some operations of a specuthe sature, and nearly all, if not ail, the loss to be had movement has had rather an improving effect upon N Orleans, and holders are firmer. We notice sales of about 20"0 bbls at 4 12} a 4 183, including 885 bbls 'Miami Mills,' in handsome order, at the higher price. In Southern descriptions we hear of no important sales, but there is a rather hetter inquiry. We quote as before-Richmond City 5 25 a 5 50; Brandywine 4 50; Howard-st, Alexandria, Petersburg, Richmond Country, Pennsylvania, &c. 4 00 a 4 121; N Y Mills 4 25. Small sales of Rye Flour at 3 00 a 3 25. Corn Meal, Jersey, 2 50 a a 2 564; Brandywine 2 624; hlids 12 25 cash, 12 75 4 mos. At Alexandria Flour was dull at 3 30 a 3 37½; receipts light. At Baltimore Howard-st was dull at 3 50 a 3 56½; City Mills 3 75.

GRAIN-We notice farther sales of about 5000 hushels Illinois Wheat for shipment at 82; cts. There has not been much done in Corn to-day, distillers offering still lower rates than vesterday. We notice sales of about 500 bushels weevily at 42, and about 1000 do. good at 45, weight. In Rye we hear of nothing doing; nominally 54 a 55. Barley 48 a 50. Oats are 30 a 31 fer Northern, 25 a 27 for Jersey. The good state of the roads has brought in considerabl quantities of Oats in sleighs, and these are offered at 30. We notice a sale of 100 bags black-eyed Peas at 1 871, which is a decline. At Boston, at auction, 300 bushels Obio Corn, yellow, sold at 52 a 52 c for 53 lbs, and 1200 do white at 50c for 53 lbs, all landing. At Baltimore large sales of white Corn at 43c. Wheat 70 a 75 for good to best red.

HAY-All the Bundle offering below 50 a 52, in store and affont, has been taken up on speculation, and we believe there is now none to be had below 56. A considerable parcel (some 300 bales) has been taken for shipment to the West Indies. The supply of Loose is large, and it is selling at 50

SUGAR-Yesterday and to-day the sales of N Ocleans each about 400 hhds, at 4 a 44, and some very fine at 5c. FRIDAY, February 16. SEPERIOR COURT .- Before Judge OAKLEY .-Helen Sophia Lispenard and others vs. Robert Stewart .several witnesses were examined on the part of the de ence, among them Mr. James Watson Webb, Rev. Mr Dunbar, Mrs Lee, Mrs Brower, and others acquainted with Alice. Col. Webb stated that he married a daughter of Mr. Alexander L. Stewart in 1823. In 1827, (after be had lef the army,) he went to reside permanently in the family o Mr. Stewart, and remained there three years. Alice came here in 1828. Mr. Stewart seldom dined with the family ne being out of health, and adopting a general rule, as he himself said, "to eat when he was hungry," his place a he head of the table, in consequence, was usually filled by Mr. W. Alice took ber meals, an ordinary occasions, with the family, and was asked what she would have and treated the same as others, with the exception that she was gener ally asked first, as a matter of respect. She was extremely down within four inches of her plate to see the location ber food, after which she partook of it in the same manne as others do, cutting it herself, and being perfectly correcin her deportment and bearing. "Had I," said Mr. W. never seen more of her than the transient periods I did before residing in the same house with her, I should have supposed her an idiot, but was afterwards surprised at the I had done her in such an opinion, an the circumstance to Mrs. Webb." The witness stated several particulars to show that she was of sound mind, though wkward and ungainly in ber appearance to strangers.

Col. Webb was pressed hard by Mr. O'Connor as to hinterest in this suit, the part he took in its prosecution be fore the Court of Errors, whether he did not believe the property had been left to Robert by Alexander L. Stewart in trust for the children of the latter, &c. Col. W. replied that Robert was a half brother of Alexander L. He has wife living, and also some nephews and nieces in Ireland .-He bas also two pephews in Boston named Jordan, who are citizens, and would inherit the estate should Robert die in testate. He resides nominally at his house in Hudson-st. but takes his meals with the family of A lexander L, who still lives at No. 51 Hudson-street, and are all at home ex cept Matilda, Mrs. Le Roy and Mrs. Webb. The interest of witness, so far as he knows, would be in favor of the plaintiff in this case succeeding, as his wife, Mrs. Webb, is an beir at law of Alice, and would inherit one-ninth or one tenth of her property. He did not take much part in the case before the surrogate, but was active in behalf of de fendant before the Court of Errors. He was so by reques of Mr. Robert Stewart, or perhaps more properly by solicitation of Mrs. Webb. The witness is not aware of the property being left by Alexander L. to Robert, in trust, for the children of the former.

Some conversation occurred relative to an article in th Courier & Enquirer of the present week baving a bearing on this case, which Mr. O'Connor somewhat complained of and what Col. W. stated to have been written by himself. It ended in rather a joke on the Colonel as to persons in dicted and pardoned, &c., but all taken in good part. Mr. Dunbar testified to having been frequently at Mr

Stewart's, and to have met Alice, whom he supposed to be of sound mind.

Mrs. Brower spoke of Alice frequently running with her and other girls near her father's house 'on the bill,' in their young days, catching grasshoppers, &c. Her sight was qual to the others, and she showed no signs of imbecility The other witnesses correborated the statements, and the case was adjourned to to-morrow (Saturday) forenson, at MARINE COURT .- Before Judge HAMMOND .-Edward Bilford vs. Parker B. Norton.-Assault and battery -damages laid at $2,000. The plaintiff was a steerage passenger on board the ship Liberty, from Liverpool, and accuses the Captain (defendant) of striking and kicking him one day at sea, when asking for provisions. The Jury thought the charge unsustained, and found for defendant.

This on the 18th in-t., broken into the house of Frederick Rullman, No. 59 Suffelk-street, and stealing a trunk of clothing worth $40. He entered the house by forcing the lock at the front door, and was seen at the time but effected his escape. When arrested be had on a pair of pantaloons and vest of the stolen property, was recognized as the burglar, and fully committed to answer.

CHAUNCEY C. LAREIN AGAIN .- Another complaint was made to-day against Chauncey C. Larkin alias Wilkes, in prison for sundry frauds and felonies, for having, on the 9th of December last, obtained wines worth $120 from Messrs. Philip W. Engs & Sons, of 94 Front-street, under the name of Charles Smith, by falsely and fraudulently re-presensing himself to be engaged in the American Hotel, and that the wine was purchased for that establishment He sent the wine to a cellar in Ann-street, then instantly re-moved and sold it. He had purchased other liquors, $450 n all, but took none away but the wine. He was commi ted to answer.

BOLD AND AUDACIOUS BURGLARY .- Yesterday morning, about 3 o'clock, as two of the clerks were sleeping in the large carpet warehouse of Mr. Reuben Smith. No. 448 Pearl-street, they were aroused from their slumbers by the sudden appearance of two burglars, who steed before them with a dark lanters and a supply of other materials for entering stores. One of the burglars immediately presented two loaded pistols at the heads of the recumbent clerks, and significantly told them that if they made any stir whatever, their brains should bedeck their pillows. The other villain then proceeded to break open the iron safe, from which be stole $100 in money and $6,000 in promissory notes, and looking round to see all safe, effected their retreat. An alarm was raised and they were chased by the watch, but easily escaped. They had entered the store by means of an English burglar's instrument called 'nippers,' which (the door being locked inside) they thrust into the key hole from without, enclose firmly the extreme on ward enc of the key, and by easily turning it in the lock, effect an
